ABOUT JO

Bottom line – Knowing Your Numbers Increases Your Numbers!

Jo Soley is the founder of Bizology®, a unique methodology that combines business strategy with numerology to help business owners understand themselves, make better decisions and build businesses that are aligned with who they are.

With over 30 years' experience in Business Development, Sales and Marketing, Jo has spent the last decade helping hundreds of business owners apply numerology to modern business.

Through Bizology®, she helps clients understand their Life Path, Personal Years, name energy and business timing, so they can stop following someone else's blueprint and start building a business that works with their natural strengths.

Jo believes there is no one-size-fits-all approach to business. Every business owner is unique, and understanding your numbers gives you the clarity, confidence and direction to make better decisions, maximise opportunities and create sustainable success.

She is the author of Bizology® 101, creator of the Bizology® Cosmic Current Planner, a regular international speaker, and hosts Bizology® retreats on the beautiful Greek island of Samos.
